STATEMENT ON THE DEATH OF STEVE JOBS

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Supervisor Jason Haas released the following statement in response to the death of Apple co-founder and former CEO Steve Jobs:

“Steve Jobs’ mission was to make a dent in the universe through his innovative work at Apple. There is no doubt that he succeeded in that effort. As a lifelong Apple aficionado, I have taken that mission to heart throughout my life, including in my role as a County Supervisor. We will all miss Steve Jobs. My thoughts go out to his family and friends, as well as to his extended family at Apple.”
